++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
After a fine day Saturday it will turn quite unsettled.

This Evening and Tonight:
Daytime showers will soon ease through the evening to leave a largely dry night with clear spells. Although some thicker cloud near the coast, could bring the odd shower. Turning quite chilly in some inland rural parts. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Saturday:
A fine and dry day for most with warm sunny spells and light winds. However, some thicker cloud will spread north later, bringing the chance of one or two showers. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Often rather cloudy, with showers or longer spells of rain. Any lengthy dry, clear or bright spells will be quite rare. Winds for the most part will be light.
